Presentation Tier: Collects customer information, displays points, and shows confirmation or error messages to customers.

Application tier: Validates transactions, calculates points earned, applies loyalty rules, and updates customer status of points. It also calculated points required and checks sufficient balance, full price coverage, and no cash back.

Data Tier: stores customer information, transaction records, point balances, rewards, and transaction history